In the city, with its great cosmopolitan population consisting of large numbers of people of every race, color, religion, sex, marital status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, and age, many of them with physical and mental disabilities, there is no greater danger to the health, morals, safety and welfare of the city and its inhabitants than the existence of groups prejudiced against one another and antagonistic to each other because of differences of race, color, religion, sex, marital status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, and disability. The council finds and declares that prejudice, intolerance, bigotry and discrimination and disorder occasioned thereby threaten the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants and menace the very institutions, foundations and bedrock of a free democratic society.

- (2) Coerce, intimidate, threaten, or otherwise interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of his or her having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of his or her having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of any right granted or protected under this chapter.

In the event that any provision, section, subsection, clause, or right set forth in articles I through VI of this chapter is found to be unenforceable by a court of law, such provision shall be severed from the remainder of this chapter and such action shall not affect the enforceability of the remaining provisions of this chapter.

State law reference(s)--Similar provisions, O.C.G.A. § 8-3-204.

Sec. 94-97. Permissible limitations in sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings by religious organizations or private clubs; housing for older persons.

(a) Nothing in this article shall prohibit a religious organization, association or society, or any nonprofit institution or organization operated, supervised, or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion or from giving preference to such persons unless membership in such religion is restricted on account of race, color, creed, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, disability, or the use of a trained dog guide by a blind, deaf or otherwise physically disabled person. Nothing in this article shall prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodgings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to its members.

(b) (1) As used in this subsection, the term "housing for older persons" means housing:

- a. Provided under any state or federal program that the commissioner determines is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons as defined in the state or federal program;
- b. Intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older; or
- c. Intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit. In determining whether housing qualifies as housing for older persons under this subsection, the commissioner shall develop regulations which require at least the following:
  1. The existence of significant facilities and services specifically designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons, or, if the provision of such facilities and services is not practicable, that such housing is necessary to provide important housing opportunities for older persons;
  2. That at least 80 percent of the units are occupied by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit; and
  3. The publication of and adherence to policies and procedures which demonstrate an intent by the owner or manager to provide housing for persons 55 years of age or older.

(2) Nothing in this article limits the applicability of any reasonable local, state or federal restrictions regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling. The provisions in this article regarding familial status shall not apply with respect to housing for older persons.

(3) Housing shall not fail to meet the requirements for housing for older persons because of:

a. Persons residing in such housing as of March 12, 1989, who do not meet the age requirements of subsection (b)(1)a. or (b)(1)b. of this section; provided, however, that new occupants of such housing meet the age requirements of subsection (b)(1)a. or (b)(1)b. of this section; or

b. Unoccupied units; provided, however, that such units are reserved for occupancy by persons who meet the age requirements of subsection (b)(1)a. or (b)(1)b. of this section.

(4) Nothing in this article prohibits conduct against a person because such person has been convicted by any court of competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance.

(c) Nothing in this article prohibits age limits up to 21 years of age.

State law reference(s)--Similar provisions, O.C.G.A. § 8-3-205.

Sec. 94-98. Educational, conciliatory activities.

The commissioner shall commence such educational and conciliatory activities as in the commissioner's judgment will further the purposes of this article. The commissioner shall call conferences of persons in the housing industry and other interested parties to acquaint them with this article and the commissioner-suggested means of implementing this article, and shall endeavor with their advice to work out programs of voluntary compliance and of enforcement. The commissioner shall consult with state and local officials and other interested parties to learn the extent, if any, to which housing discrimination exists in this city and whether and how enforcement programs might be utilized to combat such discrimination. In connection therewith, the commissioner shall issue reports on such conferences and consultations as the commissioner deems appropriate.

It shall be unlawful to coerce, intimidate, threaten or interfere with any person in the exercise or enjoyment of or on account of such person's having exercised or enjoyed or on account of such person's having aided or encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of any right granted or protected by sections 94-94 through 94-97.

ARTICLE V. FAIR PRIVATE EMPLOYMENT

Sec. 94-110. Policy.

The council declares that it is the policy of the city, in the exercise of its police powers for the protection of the public health, safety, and general welfare, and for the maintenance of peace and good government, to assure equal employment opportunity to all persons, free from restrictions and prejudice based upon race, color, creed, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, and disability. The Human Relations Commission established in article II of this chapter is vested with authority to enforce the provisions of this article in furtherance of this policy and in accordance with the procedures set forth in article VI of this Chapter.

Sec. 94-111. Definitions.

For the purposes of this Article:

Employer means any person who has ten or more employees, or the employer's designee or any person acting in the interest of such employer, but shall not include any municipal, county, state, or federal governmental entity.

Employee means any person employed by, or applying for employment with, an employer, and shall include traditional workers, temporary workers, and part-time workers.

Employment agency means any person regularly undertaking with or without compensation to procure employees for an employer or to procure for employees opportunities to work for an employer and includes an agent of such a person.

Labor organization means any organization of any kind, any agency, or employee representation committee, group, association, or plan so engaged in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours, or other terms or conditions of employment, and any conference, general committee, joint or system board, or joint council so engaged which is subordinate to a national or international labor organization.

Sec. 94-112. Unlawful employment practices.

(a) Employer practices.

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer--

(1) to fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual, or otherwise to discriminate against any individual with respect to his or her compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of such individual's race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability; or

(2) to limit, segregate, or classify his or her employees or applicants for employment in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his or her status as an employee, because of such individual's race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability.

(b) Employment agency practices.

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer for employment, or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because of his or her race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability, or to classify or refer for employment any individual on the basis of his or her race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability.

(c) Labor organization practices.

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for a labor organization--

(1) to exclude or to expel from its membership, or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because of his or her race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability;

(2) to limit, segregate, or classify its membership or applicants for membership, or to classify or fail or refuse to refer for employment any individual, in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or would limit such employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his or her status as an employee or as an applicant for employment, because of such individual's race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability; or

(3) to cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an individual in violation of this section.

(d) Training programs.

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for any employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs to discriminate against any individual because of his or her race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability in admission to, or employment in, any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training.

(e) Printing or publication of notices or advertisements indicating prohibited preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination; occupational qualification exception.

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer, labor organization, employment agency, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to print or publish or cause to be printed or published any notice or advertisement relating to employment by such an employer or membership in or any classification or referral for employment by such a labor organization, or relating to any classification or referral for employment by such an employment agency, or relating to admission to, or employment in, any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training by such a joint labor-management committee, indicating any preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination, based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability, except that such a notice or advertisement may indicate a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on religion, sex, or disability when religion, sex, or disability is a bona fide occupational qualification for employment and, in the case of disability, the employer, labor organization, employment agency, or joint labor-management committee has made reasonable accommodation for the disability to the full extent required by the Americans With Disabilities Act, codified at 42 U.S.C. § 12101.

(f) Prohibition of discriminatory use of test scores.

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for a respondent, in connection with the selection or referral of applicants or candidates for employment or promotion, to adjust the scores of, use different cutoff scores for, or otherwise alter the results of, employment related tests on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability.

(g) Impermissible consideration of protected factors in employment practices.

Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, an unlawful employment practice is established when the complaining party demonstrates that race, color, creed, religion, sex, domestic relationship status, parental status, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, gender identity, age, or disability was a motivating factor for any employment practice, even though other factors also motivated the practice.

Sec. 94-113. Exclusions from unlawful employment practices.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article,

- (1) It shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to hire and employ employees, for an employment agency to classify, or refer for employment any individual, for a labor organization to classify its membership or to classify or refer for employment any individual, or for an employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining programs to admit or employ any individual in any such program, on the basis of his or her religion, sex, or disability in those certain instances where religion, sex, or physical or mental ability is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise, provided that in the case of disability, the employer, labor organization, employment agency, or joint labor-management committee has made reasonable accommodation for the disability to the full extent required by the Americans With Disabilities Act, codified at 42 U.S.C. § 12101; and
- (2) It shall not be an unlawful employment practice for a school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning to hire and employ employees of a particular religion if such school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is, in whole or in substantial part, owned, supported, controlled, or managed by a particular religion or by a particular religious corporation, association, or society, or if the curriculum of such school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is directed toward the propagation of a particular religion.

Secs. 94-106–94-109, 94-113–94-130 Reserved.

ARTICLE VI. ENFORCEMENT

Sec. 94-120. Civil Actions by Aggrieved Persons.

- (a) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in the Atlanta Municipal Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction not later than two years after the occurrence of the alleged act of discrimination or unlawful practice.
- (b) An aggrieved person filing a civil action in the Atlanta Municipal Court shall have the right to seek injunctive relief, actual and compensatory damages, and punitive damages, as well as attorney's fees and costs. Punitive damages may be awarded under this article only when the evidence shows that the respondent's actions showed willful misconduct, malice, fraud, wantonness, oppression, or that entire want of care which would raise the presumption of conscious indifference to consequences or to the rights of the aggrieved person. Any aggrieved person seeking compensatory damages shall also have the right to demand a jury trial.
- (c) In an action brought under this section, the court having jurisdiction may, upon written findings by the judge that the action was frivolous and advanced without reasonable cause, require the nonprevailing party to pay the prevailing party the reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees, incurred in opposing such action.
- (d) An action may be filed under this section whether or not a complaint has been filed with the human rights commission under section 92-121 of this article, and without regard to the status of such complaint, but if the commission has obtained a pre-finding or pos-finding settlement or conciliation agreement with the consent of the aggrieved party, no action may be filed under this section with respect to the alleged unlawful or discriminatory practice which forms the basis for such complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the agreement.
- (e) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or restrict or deny any right or remedy any person may have under state or federal law or preclude any cause of action in court otherwise provided for the violation of any person's civil rights.
- (f) The period of limitations set forth in this section shall be tolled pending the resolution of any complaint filed with the commission under section 94-121.

Sec. 94-121. Filing of Complaints with the Human Relations Commission.

- (a) Person aggrieved. In lieu of or in addition to filing a civil action pursuant to Sec. 94-120, any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful discriminatory practice may, by such person or such person's attorney at law, make, sign and file with the municipal clerk a verified complaint in writing which shall state the name and address of the person alleged to have committed the unlawful discriminatory practice complained of and which shall set forth the particulars thereof and contain such other information as may be required by the commission.

(b) Who may file complaint.

(1) Any person or organization claiming to be aggrieved by an alleged unlawful discriminatory practice may, in person or by an attorney, make, sign and file a complaint. If a complainant lacks mental capacity, the complaint may be filed on the complainant's behalf by a person with a substantial interest in the welfare of the complainant.

(2) Any employer whose employees or some of them refuse or threaten to refuse to cooperate with this article may file with the commission a verified complaint asking for assistance by conciliation or other remedial action.

(c) Form of complaint. The complaint shall be in writing either on a form promulgated by the commission or on any paper suitable for a complaint. The original shall be signed and verified before a notary public or other person duly authorized by law to take acknowledgments. Nunc pro tunc verifications of a complaint or an answer thereto may be made at any time that the absence of a signed verification is noted.

(d) Contents. A complaint shall contain the following:

(1) The full name and address of the person making the complaint (referred to as the complainant).

(2) The full name and address of each respondent against whom the complaint is made.

(3) The alleged unlawful discriminatory practice and a statement of the particulars thereof. A respondent may reply in writing to the complainant, after the service of a notice of hearing, for a more definite or detailed statement, and such application shall state, with specificity, the instances in which the complaint is insufficiently definite and detailed. If the complainant or complainant's attorney believes that the complaint is not sufficiently definite or detailed, complainant or the complainant's attorney shall provide such a statement. Otherwise the application shall be referred to the chair after the hearing has commenced, who shall issue such directions, if any, as may be appropriate.

(4) The date of the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice and, if the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice is of a continuing nature, the dates between which the continuing acts of discrimination are alleged to have occurred.

(5) A statement as to any other action, civil or criminal, instituted in any other forum and as to any pending administrative proceeding based on the same grievance as is alleged in the complaint, together with a statement as to status or disposition of such other action.

(e) Place of filing. A complaint shall be filed with the municipal clerk or other place designated by the commission.

(f) Time of filing. A complaint must be filed within 180 days from the date of the occurrence of the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice. If the alleged unlawful discriminatory practice is of a continuing nature, the date of its occurrence shall be deemed to be any date subsequent to its inception, up to and including the date of its cessation.

(g) Manner of filing. The complaint may be filed by personal delivery, ordinary mail, registered mail or certified mail, addressed to the office of the municipal clerk.

(h) Service. A copy of the complaint shall be promptly served by the complainant on the respondents and all persons the commission deems to be necessary parties, on its own motion or on application of a respondent. A copy of all amendments to the complaint shall be served by the commission on all parties to the proceeding, except such amendments to the complaint as are made to more correctly identify a respondent or necessary party previously served. A copy of any complaint filed against any respondent who has previously entered into a conciliation agreement or as to whom findings of the commission have been rendered shall be delivered to the mayor, president and members of the council, the head of every department of city government and the license review board.

(i) Investigation and recommendation.

(1) Within 30 days after receiving a complaint, the municipal clerk or other designee of the commission shall conduct an initial investigation and report the findings to the commission. Such investigation may be made by field visit, written or oral inquiry, conference, or any other method or combination thereof deemed suitable in the discretion of the municipal clerk or other designee. The commission shall receive the report and attempt to eliminate the unlawful discriminatory practice complained of by conference, conciliation and persuasion.

(2) In conducting an investigation the municipal clerk or other designee as well as the commission shall have access at all reasonable times to records, documents, individuals and other evidence or possible sources of evidence and may examine, record and copy such materials and take and record the testimony or statements of such persons as are reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation.

(j) Conciliation.

(1) The terms of a conciliation agreement shall include provisions requiring the respondent to refrain from the commission of unlawful discriminatory practices in the future and may be agreed upon by the members of the commission and the respondent.

(2) The commission shall not disclose what has transpired in the course of its endeavors at conciliation and persuasion, except to the parties and their representatives. However, when executed, the final terms of a conciliation agreement may be disclosed.

(k) Successful conciliation.

(1) If the respondent agrees to the terms of conciliation, the chair shall prepare a proposed conciliation agreement and serve it upon the complainant.

(2) If the complainant agrees to the terms of the agreement or fails to object to such terms within 15 days after its service, the commission may formally enter into the proposed conciliation agreement by issuing its findings embodying such conciliation agreement. The commission shall serve a copy of such findings order upon all parties to the proceeding.

(l) Consideration of complainant's objections.

(1) An objection by a complainant to a proposed conciliation agreement must be written and shall be delivered or mailed within 15 days of the service of the proposed agreement. If the agreement is served by mail, service shall be accomplished by registered mail or certified mail. The objections shall be specific and in detail.

(2) Unless such objections are met or withdrawn within ten days after service thereof, the commission shall notice the complaint for hearing.

(3) However, the commission, when it finds the terms of a conciliation agreement to be in the public interest, may execute such agreement if the respondent is still willing to execute it by issuing its findings. The commission may either dismiss the objections as being without substance or may hold a hearing limited to the objections of the complainant, unless the respondent demands a hearing on the merits of the charges of unlawful discriminatory practice by serving an answer including such a demand.

(m) Notice of hearing and answer. A notice of hearing with the complaint shall be served upon the respondent and the procedures for filing an answer shall be as follows:

(1) Time of filing answer. At least three business days prior to the hearing, the respondent shall file a written answer to the complaint, sworn to and subject to the penalties of perjury.

(2) Place and manner of filing answer. The answer must be filed with the commission in triplicate in the office of the chair of the commission and a copy served upon each attorney of record and upon each party not represented by an attorney.

(3) Form of answer. The answer shall be in writing, the original being signed and sworn to subject to the penalties of perjury. The answer shall contain the party's address, telephone number and, if made by an attorney, the name, address and telephone number of the attorney. The answer shall contain a separate and specific response to each and every particular of the complaint or a denial of any knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief. Any allegation in the complaint which is not denied shall be deemed admitted.

(4) Failure to answer. If the respondent fails to answer the complaint, the hearing shall proceed on the evidence in support of the complaint.

(n) Procedure of hearings.

(1) The chair shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity. All relevant evidence shall be admitted, unless privileged or excessively cumulative.

(2) The chair shall have full authority to control the procedure of the hearing, subject to this article, and to rule upon motions and objections.

- (i) In conducting an investigation under this article, the chair shall have access at all reasonable times to premises, records, documents, individuals and other evidence or possible sources of evidence and may examine, record and copy such materials and take and record the testimony or statements of such persons as are reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation, provided that the chair first complies with the provisions of the fourth amendment to the Constitution of the United States relating to unreasonable searches and seizures. The chair may issue subpoenas to compel access to or the production of such materials or the appearance of such persons and may issue interrogatories to a respondent to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as would apply if the subpoenas or interrogatories were issued or served in aid of a civil action in the superior court. The chair or the chair's designee may administer oaths.
- (ii) Upon written application to the chair, a respondent shall be entitled to the issuance of a reasonable number of subpoenas by and in the name of the chair to the same extent and subject to the same limitations as subpoenas issued by the chair. Any subpoenas issued at the request of a respondent shall show on its face the name and address of such respondent and shall state that it was issued at the respondent's request.

- (iii) Witnesses summoned by subpoena of the commissioner shall be entitled to the same witness and mileage fees as are witnesses in proceedings in superior courts. Fees payable to a witness summoned by a subpoena issued at the request of a respondent shall be paid by the respondent.
  - (iv) Within five days after service of a subpoena upon any person, such person may petition the chair to revoke or modify the subpoena. The chair shall grant the petition if the chair finds that the subpoena requires appearance or attendance at an unreasonable time or place, that it requires production of evidence which does not related to any matter under investigation, that it does not describe with sufficient particularity the evidence to be produced, that compliance would be unduly onerous or for other good reason.
  - (v) In the event that a person refuses to obey a subpoena, the chair or other person at whose request it was issued may petition for its enforcement in the Atlanta Municipal Court.
  - (vi) Any person who wilfully fails or neglects to attend and testify or to answer any lawful inquiry or to produce records, documents or other evidence, if it is in such person's power to do so, in obedience to the subpoena or lawful order of the chair shall be guilty of a violation which is punishable as provided in section 1-8. Any person who, with intent thereby to mislead the chair or the chair's designee, shall make or cause to be made any false entry or statement of fact in any report, account, record or other document submitted to the chair pursuant to the chair's subpoena or other order, or who shall willfully neglect or fail to make or cause to be made fill, true, and correct entries in any such report, account, record or other document or who shall willfully mutilate, alter or by any other means falsify any documentary evidence shall be guilty of a violation which is punishable as provided in section 1-8, except that any fine assessed thereunder shall not exceed $500.00. Any person or entity who willfully resists, prevents, impedes or interferes with the chair, the commission, or its designee in the performance of their duties under this chapter shall be guilty of a violation which is punishable as provided in section 1-8.
- (4) All oral testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation, and a record of the proceeding shall be made and kept.

(5) Attempts at conciliation shall not be received in evidence.

(6) Evidence shall not be received in camera. However, where desirable, the chair, in consultation with counsel, may provide for the use of devices such as deletion of names and coding in order to protect personal privacy or information, including trade secrets.

(7) No person shall communicate with the chair subsequent to the commencement of a hearing on any matter relating to the case, other than a status inquiry, unless a copy of such communication is sent to all parties to the proceeding.

(o) Findings after hearing.

(1) Form and content. Findings shall be issued after hearing and shall set forth the findings of fact of the commission, the determination and, in the discretion of the chair, an opinion containing the reasons for the decision.

(2) Service. Copies of findings signed by the chair shall be sent to the complainant, to the respondent by certified mail and all other parties, with copies also sent to the mayor, municipal clerk, president and members of the council and the head of every department of city government. A copy of the findings shall be delivered to the department of police in order for the department to obtain compliance with sections 10-57(6) and 10-109(a)(13) of this Code.

(3) Conduct after findings. After making findings of discrimination in violation of articles III, IV, V or VI of this Chapter, it shall be unlawful for any city employee or official to expend city funds with the violating person or entity, except as necessary to satisfy obligations inherent under existing contracts. In addition, the commission may take one or more of the following remedial actions:

- (a) Issuing an order of enforcement as appropriate and necessary;
- (b) Ordering payment of expenses, including reasonable attorneys fees, associated with the bringing of a complaint under this section;
- (c) Ordering revocation, suspension or denial of the respondent's municipal licenses, including but not limited to any license to sell alcoholic beverages, professional license, or other business licence. If such remedy is ordered, the commission shall forward prompt notice of the order to the appropriate municipal licensing authority or authorities, which shall immediately revoke the license(s). The violating party shall have the right to periodically petition the commission for a review, and upon clear and convincing evidence that the discriminatory conduct has been halted, the commission shall order the previously revoked license(s) reinstated, and provide prompt notice of such reinstatement order to the appropriate licensing authority or authorities, which shall promptly reinstate the license.

(p) Compliance investigation.

(1) Investigation. Not later than one year from the date of a conciliation agreement, findings after hearing or after stipulation and at any other times in its discretion, the commission shall investigate whether the respondent is complying with the terms of such agreement or recommendations.

(2) Action. Upon a finding of noncompliance, the commission shall take appropriate action to ensure compliance. The commission shall notify the license review board of the respondents' noncompliance.

(q) Appeal. Any party to a proceeding of the commission may file an appeal by writ of certiorari as provided by law.

(Code 1977, §§ 5-9006)

ARTICLE VII. DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIPS*

Sec. 94-131. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Declaration of domestic partnership means a form provided by the city business license office in which two people agree to be jointly responsible for the necessities of life incurred during the domestic partnership and that all qualifications for domestic partnership are met when the declaration is signed. The form will require both partners to provide reasonable proof of their primary, regular and permanent residence address. The form must be signed under penalty of perjury and must be witnessed and notarized. The business license office shall, within 30 days of the effective date of this article (June 29, 1993), make such forms available. To help defray costs associated with the providing and filing of these forms, the business license office is authorized to charge a fee as set forth in section 94-134 for each completed form.

*Cross reference(s)--Domestic partners eligible for certain employee benefits, § 2-858.

Domestic partnership. Domestic partners are two people of the opposite or same gender who live together in the mutual interdependence of a single home and have signed a declaration of domestic partnership in which they attest that:

- (1) They share the same primary, regular and permanent residence and have lived together for the previous six months (documentation must be submitted verifying joint residency);
- (2) They have a committed personal relationship with each other that is mutually interdependent and intended to be lifelong;
- (3) They agree to be jointly obligated and responsible for the necessities of life for each other;
- (4) They are not married to anyone or legally separated from anyone;
- (5) They are 18 years of age or older;
- (6) They are competent to enter into a contract;
- (7) They are not related by blood closer than would bar marriage in the state;
- (8) They are each other's sole domestic partner;
- (9) They agree to file a termination of domestic partnership within 30 days if any of the facts set out in this definition change; and

(10) Any prior domestic partnership in which their domestic partner participated with a third party was terminated not less than six months prior to the date of such affidavit, and, if such earlier domestic partnership had been acknowledged under provisions of this section, that notice of termination of such earlier domestic partnership was provided to the city in writing to the business license division of the department of finance not less than six months prior to the date of said affidavit. If the prior domestic partnership was terminated by the death of the partner, there shall be no waiting period.

Live together means that two people claiming domestic partnership status share the same primary, regular and permanent residence. It is not necessary that the legal right to possess the residence be in both names. Domestic partners do not cease to live together if one leaves the shared residence for a period not to exceed one year, but intends to return. Whether the relationship between these two people is or is not sexual is in no way relevant for the purposes of determining eligibility under this article.

Necessities of life means the cost of basic food, shelter, clothing and medical care. The individuals need not contribute equally or jointly to the cost of these expenses as long as they agree that both are responsible and obligated for the cost.

(Code 1977, § 14-13001)

Cross reference(s)--Definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 94-132. Legal effect of declaration of domestic partnership.

(a) Rights and duties created. Neither this article nor the filing of a declaration of domestic partnership shall create any legal rights or duties from one of the parties to the other, except those which specifically refer to domestic partnership. Nothing in this article shall be construed to explicitly or implicitly create a marital relationship. This chapter does not attempt to alter or affect the laws in the state that regulate any private or civil relationships.

(b) Duration of rights and duties. Once a domestic partnership ends, the partners will incur no further obligations to each other under this article.

(Code 1977, § 14-13002)

Sec. 94-133. Establishing existence of domestic partnership.

(a) Generally. Domestic partners who are residents of the city or who are employees of the city may establish the existence of their domestic partnership by presenting an original declaration of domestic partnership to the business license office of the city along with reasonable proof of residence such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, utility bill, or state I.D. card. The business license office will file the declaration and provide the partners with a certificate showing that the declaration was filed with the business license office. The standard declaration form will be available in the business license office during normal business hours.

(b) Limitations. The business office shall only accept for filing declarations of domestic partnership submitted by domestic partners who have residence in the city or who are employees of the city.

(c) Amendments to the declaration. A partner may amend a declaration of domestic partnership filed with the business license office at any time to show a change in such partner's primary residence address.

The effective date of such termination will be retroactive to the date that such qualifications or conditions were no longer met.
